Workshop Title: Visionaries: Using Vision Boards

Audience: Students

What do you envision your life to be in the future? In the new year? Or even next week? Come create a collage for your dreams and plans. We'll create vision boards that you can take home to be reminded every day of what you want and what you're striving towards. Bring pictures, drawings, sketches, or even short poems, quotes, and/or words of inspiration to add to your vision board!

Workshop Title: Parent's Literacy Workshop

Audience: Parents

Parents are one of the most significant influences in a young person's success in life. Do you want to have greater impact in your son or daughter's success? Are you committed to creating a home experience that will provide the best opportunities for success for your son or daughter? Is your son or daughter's future worth 60 minutes of your time? If you answered yes to those questions, we invite you to the Sarah Goode Family Literacy evening.

During this event, parents will:

- Learn the key to ensuring success through literacy.
- Discover strategies to create a home focused on literacy.
- Gain the opportunity to connect with other parents and Sarah Goode educators to build community.
- Do something significantly meaningful for your son or daughter
- Learn how to foster a love of reading through story time and language games for students and families.
